Pacific Homecoming 2014

By Tina Le, Class of 2014

Alpha Psi brothers and 20 alumni joined together on October 17th and 18th for a Homecoming Weekend full of memories! A casual alumni social Friday night and a BBQ Saturday afternoon at Rowland Hall preceded an eventful homecoming dinner on Saturday night at the Stockton Golf and Country Club.

Also, as a part of the growing effort to raise money for student scholarships, the APES&L Foundation hosted a raffle for 2 Super Bowl Raffle tickets.

Congratulations to Alumni brothers Cynric Cho and Ralph Saroyan for being those lucky winners.

Special Thanks to Alumni President Christopher Won and Worthy Alumni Liaison Johnny Nilsen for setting up a weekend to remember.

Website Update: Memorial Donations

Our website has had a recent update. We now have a special section dedicated to memorial donations. If you would like to make a tax-deductible donation to the foundation in the name of another organization, gift donation to another individual, or in honor of a brother who is no longer with us, one-time donations can now be made via our website.

When you make a donation to the Alpha Psi Foundation Memorial Program, the person you designate receives a memorial card that indicates in whose memory or honor the gift has been made. It also lists your name as the donor, and your name is also mentioned on our website here, and in our newsletter. You also receive a receipt for your gift to the Foundation.

Foundations of Our Foundation

For those brothers who haven't contributed to the Alpha Psi ES&L Foundation yet, here's what we're all about:

MISSION

The Foundation, a 501 (c) (3) tax exempt public benefit corporation, promotes education, scholarship, and leadership development by providing financial support to pharmacy students, with special consideration given to members of the Alpha Psi Chapter of the Phi Delta Chi Pharmacy Fraternity.

VISION

The Foundation aspires to be widely recognized by the University of the Pacific and the national Phi Delta Chi fraternity as a leader in providing financial support for pharmacy students in education, scholarship and leadership development.

VALUES

The Foundation embodies the belief that investing in the development of pharmacy students is an investment in improving the profession of pharmacy, health care, and society at large.

Whitney Family Endowed California Scholarship 2014

Congratulations to Joseph Kim

Congratulations to Joseph Kim on being the first recipient of the Whitney Family Endowed California Scholarship.

Joseph is currently a second year student at Pacific's School of Pharmacy and serves as VP of Communications on the Student Board, ASP, and Worthy Assistant Prelate in the active chapter. The criterion for this award includes the potential to be involved in independent practice, compounding, long-term care, consulting, and pharmacy advocacy. The recipient must be born in the state of California and be a full-time student in good academic standing.
