New National Award through PLEI established by John F. (Jack) Schlegel

At the inaugural presentation, this $1000 scholarship was established by our own alumni and Past President of the Alpha Psi ES&L Foundation in conjunction with the Pharmacy & Education Institute (PLEI). We congratulate Jack and Priscilla for their continued commitment to supporting Leadership Development through the Alpha Psi Foundation and at the National level through PLEI.

The Schlegel Leadership Development Award recognizes a Phi Delta Chi collegiate Brother who has demonstrated the potential for exceptional leadership in the profession. Items taken into consideration for this award include work experience, both within and outside of the pharmacy profession, awards, scholarships and active participation in community, campus, and other organizations. The Award has been endowed so that it will be presented each year in perpetuity.

Congratulations to Dr. Courtney Purcell!
